CFSA offers donations and an open house to support the community

An opportunity to get a better look at child care and its workers in Peace River

Peace River... In recognition of a year of support from Peace River and surrounding communities, Northwest Alberta Child and Family Services Authority (CFSA) has invited community partners, volunteers, and some key stakeholders to attend their upcoming open house. Of importance, caseworkers and managers are going to be present and will be able to answer questions on youth programs, available child care supports, child intervention policies and other related items.

The Northwest Alberta CFSA Open House is being held in the 2nd Floor Boardroom at the Peace River and Area Office (9715-100 Street) on December 18th Open House from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Those who attend the open house will have the opportunity to take an office tour and talk with Northwest Alberta CFSA employees about current child and youth related topics for Peace River.

As part of the Northwest Alberta CFSA commitment to community involvement, employees at the Peace River and Area Office have been raising funds and collecting donations for the Christmas Hamper over the past few weeks.

This holiday season, these donations will be provided to the Salvation Army in Peace River and employees at the Peace River and Area Office will present these donations to the Salvation Army on Thursday, December 18, 2008.

Working to make the holidays better for those in Peace River is one small part of the Northwest Alberta CFSA commitment to support communities within our region. For more information on Northwest Alberta CFSA, visit www.northwestalbertacfsa.gov.ab.ca.
